

Almost Bestest Friends...

Cast:

- 2 Girl People Puppets [ names are easily changed]

Recommended Ages:

Almost Bestest Friends is recommended for audience of ages 4-8 years.

Rachel: You know, Marci, you are my very bestest friend in the whole world. My BFF.

Marci: Wow, Rachel, you are almost my bestest friend.

Rachel: Yep, Marci, there's nobody like us best friends in the whole wide world.
BFF that's you and me.

Marci: Yep, Rachel, like I said , you are ALMOST my bestest friend in the whole wide world.

Rachel: Oh [with a disappointed sound]. What is that supposed to mean?

I tell you that you are my very bestest most wonderfulest friend in the whole wide world and you like somebody better than me for bestest friend.

BOO HOO....BOO HOO

Marci: Wait a minute!

[ All in a raised excited voice--- while Rachel is still boo-hooing]

Hold on ! Rachel!

R-A-C-H-E-L !!!!

Rachel: [GASPS]--WHAT ???!!!!

Marci: Rachel, my best friend is Jesus. He loved you and me both so very much, that He became the Lamb that was slain for us.

Rachel: OH, Marci, I see what you mean.....
I am your bestest person friend, but Jesus is your bestest friend of all because He paid for our way to Heaven with His own blood.

Marci: That's right, Rachel.

[Turns to boys and girls]

AND boys and girls, He can be your very best friend of all, too.

*In His Vineyard Together Ministries©2005
Francine Singleterry
February, 2005*